Decadence Offering II: Life

The morning always seemed so nice to me, its grace flowing through my fingers makes me feel more alive than I should be. Cranking the half open door without any. My only love sleeps with me tonight, the ballad of our dreams may finally come into fruition. A tenderness I can't seem to feel the same way I used to. The clock stops, the room melts beneath me. That name doesn't resonate with me anymore. Clenching my open fists for them. Walking into my own observation of minimal desire. It never gets funny each time it does. My only love, presumed dead, sleeps through nothing now. Was never there, always there, through there end. A presence is only as strong as it never was. Maybe this might make sense another time around. The fun looms around me, as does this audition. I'm not here like I remember, I'm not here like I remember. Avoid the coagulated metal, watch the first step you take. Air, was it all, was it all the room feels tonight as of. Now this is where it ends, now this is where I pronounce you my beloved. We had a family once, as good as we made it. Not now, not ever again if I even see you beside me. Great, loving the room, where I was. As does a place matter, if the context can extend itself beyond this point of not returning. Love me, love me, love me, love me, love me, love me. Heading out for the night, never come back. Always interluding the obvious choice, the choice that might not even occur. Share with me a poem, a poem of the night sky, the gentle warmth of your body against mine, melting beyond the stars. Catch up, you won't make it far enough. That's what I wanted for the duration of my internal position. The room moved ever so slightly in an ultimate decision. Colder and colder down the stairs. Why does this always happen to, to, connecting a signal on your path now. Continue dying close to me, the willingness of light. Brighter as I never would. The stairs, going back to them. Going back to love, the dream I woke up from. When a battle concerns the common creation, folding the lettered arrow.

Spraying thin air caught an occluded disappearance.
Doing as such left the direction to intervene in the conversation about to happen. Cityscapes were all the sky and the world and the serial numbers on the back of the post. Sensing the rendition to go to rancid uprisings. Directing signals across that sea, in the morning future. Sold a house, beautiful walls that should be varnish. Crying all over the sea board in a dazed frenzy of additionally mono growth on the system. Of anything derived gave this, this, and that.
Was that the way I thought of, and so made it go up.
Questioning or concerning, driving or leaning, combating or failing, worth. Wake inside the closet of your only desire, open it. Gone as I suspected, was as it came. Existing on homing telephones, coordinating nothing, yet. Come or come down the lane through the back alley, commence the overdrive. Through convenient shares, opportunistic ripples of trembling thoughts. Think of it as waking down, per each customer can get lost in here. Nouns being thrown diagonally in the metric patterns. Triumph never sought to see the fading sun, as turning. As easily done in the soothing editions, following the proceeds. Crisp tokens in signature refinements without warning, none. Sitting throned past drinks of our hour. Tipping the titans on downward canvas. Sang into open sounds on the liquor consumption. The love finally stopped, rising beside me as I would conjure the concerned apples. Crimson finishing on universal vegas. The streets, tangled and tangled in a distant aura of indistinguishable text. Ladder upon strips of facilities torn by seconds of food distribution on critical mass. Future makings of the next hollow moon, goldy portrayals. Carbonation in melon saplings woven in time stilled making. Lastly on the next series in an end to suffer. Real friends never existed in a phrase of such repetition. Tree stores tenth rancid worry jolted in. Ounces in unsatisfied memories on betrayed miles of the in the out the door conservative values. Peaking in knowledge of such force, noir shadows and colors fade across the gold eternally kept. Conditioning the soldiers now in solitude of the evening light with a slice. Variations yesterday were normal the one day it came to the ecology and economy and distribution of distributing peacefulness. Donor rejection coupled electric pulses on factoid polynomials. Decimated folding holding churning, larking the spontaneous arms collected drips. Saliva enriched experiments damper cool grim parking lots on blue horizons that don't exist yet until tested. An exquisite dinner granted left lopsided and scattered on broken chimes. Consuming real endeavours at an all time making. Tumbling and creating maximum effort towards distant worries of the past to forget the youthful angst. Drowning you now are, doors behind you close, the room seems brighter now, the words don't make sense anymore, our comfort is finally gone. What lasted life and life again in a time that only can describe the certain place in which it happened or even happens. Suddenly unexpectedly far to continue with peaks transfigured on computer waves, radio station goes.

Addition was violated in basic happenings of cursed futures in past defeats traced on marked film.
Rolling credits to that other selected reel of reels.
Make sense of not what is even seen or said as nothing is possible through passages of lost time.
Losing that grip on the touchstone and key to an open secret or earthly quench. Ropes upon ropes of ice cream rotting in skulls that taste freedom as a last resort in unsatisfied matters. Was not the way I saw on the map coming over here, last time was worse, far worse than I ever expected. Distorted figurines dancing in the darkness with me, don't join. Advice directs the wooden cabinets to actually fit untied place of deep shallow canvases. Depressing that this one tentative house loved the neighboring displays of crudeness. Lighting the matches of fighting revival never as bothered. Dream of this finding under bellowed afternoons in deaths connect geographically. I guess the reversed kicking back can neutralize opportunities after all this unsanitary warning. Deluxe quartets played on request for the love I never had, never wanted to feel in another sense. Ruling the deserved rights summoned decks in two direct mild ways. Friends died according to my own beliefs that eventually died as well, reminder to the reminding few who lively recite driving searches. Kelt paths diverged into rhythmic music for the poor and ultimately minded. Love so saddening cremating the featured artists on twelve tracking records frosted in jolted springs. Photos bladed or at least inscribed onto tall stones inside grave sightings locally told. Accountable slices controlling video automated voice systems invented in a year that cannot advance. Swimming and drifting apart the separate ways of flickering frames. Crystalized money pointing up and around systematic scribbles brought feedings on lifeless tubes. Death as a subject boarding several better solutions towards frantic emotions and emergency exits. There it goes now, down that stream I was left with, the force becomes greater now. Not again as it could say if I was to find a way to go about that symbolic life. Deeper and listening hostility with such haste that undeniably motivates incredible reflections into faces of granite. Paper mounds formed on the driveway last night, not sure if it meant what meanings try to convey these days. Beauty was once a charming starter until it sunk inside the agony of microphone stands. Rhyming left chance to the description on the back, it was night by then. I find myself in the need of piloting no other such revolution as inventing. Deadly screaming ran across the severed corridors with grim intent. That outrage tore us apart as to video the prophecies. Forward the remains now, sip that last glass of wine like it was never there. Aspirin flames eternally forked in rushed puzzle assortments to be pieced separately. Undone singing retracted and encased onto empty beauties of nothing. Ranch powdered covers on destination into plastered corners of silver dome. Basing my fingertips around her gentle warmth, pulsating my eyes and mouth. Don't leave me like this as you always do. That spot of light shining in the corner of the room is devastating. Summon flick, introduce, the best of its only best. Didn't everything seem bright at one point, until I lost everything. Not in that sense, was it the other, or the last I could feel. Things were never easier without you next to me, that distance brush. Oh is the air full tonight past the time. Sipping pasture to my reaching world endeavor in aches of the. Decadence Offering III: Death on this approximation, a distilled afterlife was found to be beyond comprehension when discovered. its mortal being transcended and melted into the walls of red paint. there was nothing but the stretched innards in a dismay. a note was left inside, as it only came out to be a bunch of scribbles. the core was less than it was and created for the crystal clear realization in which will still try to love and care. waste the current lifetime shown moving backwards, an advancement forward fills up a sensation of real to pure unimaginable. looked in front of and see the confusion now moments away from discovery. run away as far as possible as it crawls inside you. what ends here is not meant to be described, a total waste...

you were in the shower as an invitation to let me in while you stood there with nothing on, smiling back at me. i caressed your chest and then kissed you once. i must have puffed my face while doing so, because you decided to happily mirror me in a second kiss. during our third kiss, we both felt beyond eternal.
